I would like to sincerely thank Patricio for his outstanding help throughout this quarter. I have worked with him many times before, and he has been excellent as always. Although I did not formally assign him the role of head TA, he essentially took on that responsibility in practice. He provided tremendous support in many aspects of the course, including grading coordination, communication, and course logistics. He was responsible, reliable, and professional, and his help made a significant difference throughout the quarter. I truly appreciate all the work he contributed and would be very happy to work with him again.
